

ARIS
ANAGNOS
SCHOLARSHIP
AWARD
2017

AWARDED BY THE AMERICAN HELLENIC COUNCIL

Rules

Please carefully read the rules before proceeding. Any applicant that does not meet the following criteria will not be considered for the scholarship.

1. The scholarship is open to applicants of Greek descent. Non-Greeks adopted into Greek families will be considered.
2. Applicants must be undergraduate students (junior or senior level required).
3. Applicants must be students enrolled full-time in a US college/university.
4. Previous winners are not eligible.

Procedure

Please carefully read the rules before proceeding. Any applicant that does not meet the following criteria will not be considered for the scholarship.

- Each candidate will have their name, home address, and anything else that may allude to their identity, redacted. This is done to ensure that each candidate is evaluated on merit.
- The candidates will then be assigned a number with which they will be identified.
- Once the application period is closed, all applications will be submitted to an external panel of professors who will rank each candidate.
- The external panel will have a universal rubric with which to judge each candidate. This rubric will allow panelists to reward candidates based on certain criteria.
- The highest-scoring candidate will receive the award.

Objective

The purpose of this scholarship is to engage the next generation of Greek-Americans with the American Hellenic Council, and reward them for their exemplary academic accomplishments as ambassadors of the Hellenic World in their communities.

Guidelines

Candidates are asked to submit the following items to the American Hellenic Council for consideration for this award. Please be sure that all of the items have been completed before submitting your application.
